

Deputy Chief David Hendricks

Deputy Chief David Hendricks was hired by the City of Long Beach in 1992. He began his career with the City of Long Beach as a part-time dispatcher for the Marine Patrol, while completing his studies in criminal justice at California State University, Long Beach.

He graduated from CSULB in December 1993 and was hired shortly thereafter as a police officer. His assignments included Patrol, Community Policing, Field Training, Support Bureau, the Gang Enforcement Section and as Chief of Staff. His prior commands include Youth Services, North Patrol, and Internal Affairs Divisions.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from California State University, Long Beach, a Master of Public Administration from Andrew Jackson University, and is a graduate of the 229th session of the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy.

Deputy Chief Hendricks is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the California Peace Officers Association, and is currently the Chairperson of the Board of the Long Beach Police Historical Society and on the Board of Directors for the Conservation Corps of Long Beach. He is also a past president of the Long Beach Police Command Officers Association.